CASE NUMBER 2214

Thereafter, the jury retired to select a foreperson and begin deliberations.

Defendant and counsel waive their presence during any read back requested by jury.

Court recessed.

3:00 P.M.

Defendant, counsel and jury are again present in open court.

The Court is in receipt of a note from the jury stating they are deadlocked. The inquired with the Foreperson Juror #9 regarding the number of times the jury had voted and the numerical split.

The Foreperson responded.

The Court inquired with the Foreperson and the other jurors if further deliberation would help in reaching a verdict.

The Foreperson and remaining jurors responded negative.

Court finds the jury is deadlocked and therefore declares a mistrial.

The Court thanked the jurors for their service and released them from the admonition of the court.

People move to dismiss.

Motion Granted; case is dismissed.
